2010 Risking Connection® Consultation Events for RC Associate Trainers

Purpose

The consultation groups and events will provide continued learning about RC concepts and training issues, practice in teaching sections of the RC Training, and discuss specific issues that have arisen in your settings related to implementing internal RC trainings and trauma informed care.

Who Should Attend

These events are for credentialed RC Associate Trainers. On occasion, we open the Day of Learning and Sharing up to a wider audience.

As of January 1, 2010, it is now required that all RC Associate Trainers in Massachusetts and Connecticut attend two of the four annual trainer events (see below) in order to maintain their RC Associate Trainer credential.
